

NEW AND NOTEWORTHY

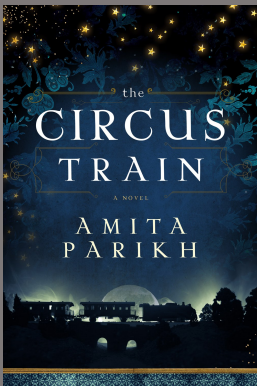

JILLIAN'S PICKS

Hey all! It's Jillian, your CVL Selection Manager. That's me to the left. I'm back to share what I've been reading, watching, and/or listening to lately!

The Circus Train by Amita Parikh is really lovely. The Circus always seems to have this romantic notion about it in which all are accepted no matter how unusual you are in the real world, plus the travelling and not having a real home. But this follows a young girl who feels like an outcast even within the circus.

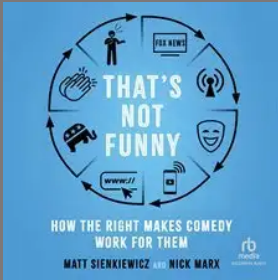

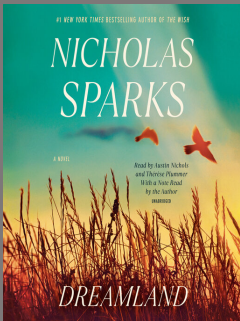

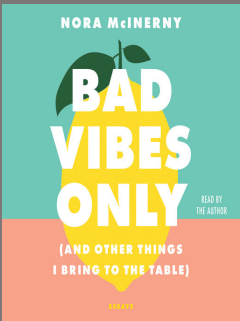

The Circus Train will take readers on a heart-wrenching and spectacular two-decade journey across Europe. When all is lost, how do you find the courage to keep moving forward?
