

MNG6 Alcoholic Beverages

The library does not allow the use or serving of alcoholic beverages anywhere on library property during normal library operating hours. After normal library operating hours for special invitation only events, wine and other alcoholic beverages along with non-alcoholic drinks may be served.

Organizations wishing to use library property for events where alcoholic beverages will be served must have the prior approval of the library director or library director's designee. Library sponsored events where alcoholic beverages may be served must also have the prior approval of the library director or director's designee.
