

CUSTOMER CODE OF CONDUCT

The Chattahoochee Valley Libraries exist for all members of the community. To ensure a pleasant and safe environment and to protect your library resources, this Code of Conduct describes behavior that infringes on the safety and well-being of our customers and their ability to use the library.

During pandemic conditions, the following Code of Conduct rules will apply. These rules may change as needed based on public health:

1. Minors under the age of 12 who are visiting the library or using a computer must have a caregiver over the age of 12 who remains with them at all times.
2. Computer time is limited based on supply, and determined by public health and social distancing.
3. Masks must be worn properly in the library at all times. Please cover your nose and your mouth. Please wear a face covering, or we will supply one for you.
4. Seating will be limited, and occupancy will be limited in each building at all times.
5. During some phases of re-opening, parts of the library will be blocked from public use.
6. In order to maximize the number of customers, and minimize exposure, customers should minimize their time in the library.
7. No eating or drinking.
